Property Details

500 plus acres with over half a mile of undisturbed beachfront affords the savvy investor the best of both worlds; an opportunity to create a little island of its own without the need to provide the entire infrastructure such as travel and basic facilities. Lucky Mount Acreage, on the pristine and historic Cat Island in The Bahamas, has a distinct location on Fine Beach and is just minutes away from the New Bight International Airport. This acreage was also approved in the past for hotel and casino development with single-family lots. This benefits the buyer with necessary plot maps and environmental assessments for a comfortable road to re-approval. There was even a space for a future golf site pegged on this one-of-a-kind property. Additional information is available upon request. Price is US$13M.
