Property Details

If Elbow Cay were a palace, Upalong Hill would be the Queen. An uncommon offering that truly has it all: powder sand shoreline, lighthouse/ harbour view, excellent elevation, large lot ( ½ acre), privacy, walking distance to Hope Town's shops & eateries, and dockage in Nigh Creek. Upalong Hill is named after its location, "Upalong". In Richard Seaberg's novel, "Hope Town: Reality of a Dream", the author writes: "Upalong area would have been the most desirable land in Hope Town, or Great Harbor as it was known then, considering its higher elevation and views to both the harbor and the ocean. The breezes would come from any direction depending on the time of the year." If all that's been mentioned, weren't already enough, this amazing trophy property also comes with fame factor. A truly unique offering for a collector of the extraordinary.
