Property Details

At the cul-de-sac of Island's End Drive in the private and luxurious community of Ocean Club Estates, you will find an ultra-contemporary home with Commanding views of Montagu Bay. The home is a bold design statement, conceived and executed by a well-known Austrian Architectural firm and the home's owner, and is brand new and features everything that a modern smart home should have. There are 6 bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms, an open plan living room which is separated from the open plan Chef's kitchen and dining room by the spectacular lighted glass and stainless-steel staircase. With a Total of just over 8,000 square feet of living space, there are abundant highlights that showcase the sumptuousness of this home, including a large family room and a separate home office on the second floor, a large pool deck with a Jacuzzi hot tub and an infinity pool. At night, the view from the home sparkles with the lights of Nassau in the distance shimmering across the water to create a magical tableau.
