Property Details

Camelot, designed lovingly by the sole owners to be an oasis of peace and quiet amidst a fast moving world, sits at the end of a canal and offers a commanding westerly view providing spectacular sunsets. Graceful arches adorn the back of the house that opens out on to a large swimming pool and deck. The strong Mediterranean influence in both the architecture, and the interior, of this majestic home are showcased by Mexican clay tiles, wrought iron banisters, lamps and chandeliers. The thick walls, porches and breezeways ensure a welcome cool even in the height of summer. This property was purposely created with entertaining in mind, and has hosted its fair share of glamorous events. The high ceilings, sweeping semi-circular staircase and large rooms give a feeling of space and tranquility from the outside world. Home to a prolific Coconut grove and several mature fruit trees, Camelot is built on the largest single lot on the Lyford Cay canals, and boasts over 80 palm trees. A large walled garden provides a magical space for children (or pets) to explore and play safely.
